

Regional Migrant Health Group

Academic Research Themed Meeting

Bridging the gap between evidence, policy and practice

Tuesday 24th July, 1pm - 4.30pm

Department of Anthropology, Durham University, Dawson Building, South Road, Durham, DH1 3LE

12.45 - 1.00	Arrival and Refreshments
1.00 - 1.10	Welcome and overview of afternoon – Edward Kunonga, Director of Public Health, South Tees Public Health
1.10- 1.20	Overview of FUSE and the ASK FUSE Service - Lesley Hayley & Dr Peter van der Graaf (FUSE)
1.20- 1.40	Highlights from the 1 st World Congress on Migration, Ethnicity, Race and Health 2018, and context for themed session— Rachel McIlvenna (South Tees Public Health)
1.40 – 2.00	Exploring Healthcare Concerns of New Mothers and Pregnant Women Seeking Asylum in the UK - Lily Edwards (Manchester University)
2.00-2.20	Dropping in with Women Seeking Asylum in Teesside: Informality, Instability and Reproductive Choices - Savita Sathe (Durham University)
2.20-2.30	Q & A
2.30- 2.40	Comfort Break
2.40- 3.00	Mental health among asylum-seekers and refugee children: An argument for a needs-led service model - Sarah Hunt (University of Leicester)
3.00- 3.20	Integrating attention to ethnicity and migration within applied public health and health inequalities research - Dr Victoria J. McGowan (Newcastle University)
3.20- 3.30	Q & A
3.30- 4.20	Discussion & Feedback
4.20- 4.30	Summary and Next Steps- Edward Kunonga (South Tees Public Health)
4.30	Close

To confirm your attendance email : PHWellbeing@middlesbrough.gov.uk