

Understanding the impact of stigma and multiple disadvantage: a call for action

Thursday 7 November 2024, 12.00 - 2.00pm

Programme
12.00 - 12.05	Welcome from Ian Treasure: Programme Manager (Changing Futures Lancashire)
Chair – Dr William McGovern: Associate Professor of Marginalised Communities (Fuse – Northumbria University)
12.05 - 12.10	Dr William McGovern: Associate Professor of Marginalised Communities (Fuse – Northumbria University) What is stigma?
12.10 - 12.20	Steve: Lived Experience Expert Living with stigma & poetry reading
12.20 - 12.30	Lydia Lochhead: Senior Research Assistant (Fuse – Northumbria University) Stigma and women in recovery
12.30 - 12.40	Dr Victoria Carlisle: Senior Research Associate (University of Bristol) Destigmatising the pharmacy experience for people who receive opioid substitution treatment: a co-production study
12.40 - 12.55	Dr Cassey Muir: Research Associate (Fuse – Newcastle University) What works for reducing stigma for adults who experience disadvantage?
	Break
Chair – Ian Treasure: Programme Manager (Changing Futures Lancashire)
1.00 - 1.15	Christopher Houghton: Data and Knowledge Analyst (Changing Futures Lancashire) Impact of Changing Futures Lancashire
1.15 - 1.25	David: Lived Experience Expert Tackling stigma & poetry reading of 'Changing Futures'
1.25 - 1.30	Laura Smy, Fylde Coast Multiple Disadvantage Programme Lead Stigma Chartermark
1.30 - 1.50	Q&A Panel Discussion (Chair: Dr William McGovern) Cassey Muir, Ian Treasure, Steve, David, Lydia Lochhead, Victoria Carlisle, Christopher Houghton, Laura Smy
1.50 - 2.00	Closing remarks and a Call for Action Ian Treasure: Programme Manager (Changing Futures Lancashire)